Circular. (W.15342/354/64) Foreign Office, November 30, 1942.

Gift parcels for Allied Nationals serving with the Allied or British Forces.

Sir,

I am directed by Mr.Secretary Eden to inform you that arrangements have been made, in agreement with the Allied Governments established in this country, whereby duty is not charged, nor are any customs restrictions imposed, on gift parcels (including tobacco and cigarettes) sent from overseas to individual members of units of the Allied Forces in the United Kingdom or to men of Allied nationality serving in the British Forces in the United Kingdom, provided they are addressed in the correct manner as indicated in the enclosed schedule.

2. Gifts may also be sent on the same conditions to Danish nationals serving in the British Forces, both to individuals and in bulk, and should be addressed to -

Danish Gift Department, 67, Pont Street, S.W.1.

3. I am to request that you will use the above information in ~~xxxxxxxxxx~~ replying to any enquiries you may receive on this question, and that you will at the same time make it clear that gifts sent under these arrangements must be for the sole personal use and consumption of the addressee, and not for resale or transference to other persons in any circumstances. It should, further, be noted that parcels containing foodstuffs cannot be sent on to destinations outside the United Kingdom.
